

PRESS RELEASE

galerie burster berlin

Bram Braam | Words Can't Tell

5 November – 4 December 2021

Opening

Friday, 5 November 2021, 6 – 9 pm

We are pleased to present Words Can't Tell, a solo show by Bram Braam at galerie burster Berlin.

A search for the raw traces to be found in our urban environment – a landscape dominated by architecture – are the points of departure for the work of Dutch artist Bram Braam. This search manifests itself in a sculptural and poetic representation of materiality and decay. Architectural landscapes are by their very nature subject to change, they are built for the purpose of humankind to live, work and play and, at the same time, it is this use that causes transformation alongside the influences of nature, destruction and decay. The sculptural works of Bram Braam are a reference to this eternal cycle and the transformation process of this materiality from its creation to its death.

— Sarie Nijboer

Bram Braam (*1980 in Sittard, Netherlands) studied at the Royal Academy of Fine Arts, Den Bosch, Netherlands. His works have been included in international solo and group exhibitions such as Till Richter Museum Schloss Buggenhagen, Germany, Torrence Art Museum Los Angeles, USA, Künstlerhaus Bethanien Berlin, Germany, Kunsthal Rotterdam, Netherlands, Neuer Berliner Kunstverein, Germany, Deutsche Bank Kunsthalle Berlin, Germany. Bram Braam is stipendiary of the Mondriaan Fonds and lives and works in Berlin.

For further information please contact Miriam Schwarz: miriam@galerieburster.com

Opening hours: Wednesday – Friday 12 – 6 pm | Saturday 12 – 4 pm and by appointment